I take refuge in the Buddhas, and likewise in the Dharma and the assembly of Bodhisattvas, until I reach the quintessence of enlightenment.

Just as the Tathagatas of the past generated Bodhicitta, then having trained as Bodhisattvas, gradually came to exist as such, likewise, for the sake of benefiting living beings, I shall generate Bodhicitta, and after following the training, gradually become learned.

(Repeat the above three times)

Now my life is fruitful, for I have favorably obtained a human existence. Today I am born into the family of the Buddhas, and thus I have now become a Buddha's son.

Now I shall certainly undertake actions which are in accord with this family, and act in such a manner that will not soil this flawless and noble lineage.

Today, in the presence of all the sources of refuge, I invite living beings to partake of happiness until they reach enlightenment. May the gods, demigods, and others, be pleased!

May precious Bodhicitta be born in those in whom it has not arisen. For those in whom it has arisen, may it not diminish, but grow ever greater.
May I be inseparable from Bodhicitta, carry out enlightened conduct, be tended by the Buddhas, and abandon evil actions.

May Bodhisattvas' intentions for the benefit of living beings be accomplished.

May what the Lords intend bring happiness to all sentient beings.

May all sentient beings be endowed with happiness.
May all evil realms be emptied forever.

However many Bodhisattvas dwell on the stages of the path, may the prayers of all of them be accomplished.
